

Breeze Airways Adds New Nonstop to San Diego from Norfolk

-- Fares from Just $99* One Way -- --

Norfolk, VA (May 1, 2024) – Breeze Airways, the U.S.’ only NLCC, or ‘Nice Low Cost Carrier,’ today started new nonstop service from Norfolk to San Diego, CA. Fares start from just $99* one-way, if purchased by May 7, for travel by September 30, 2024.

From Norfolk, VA:

- San Diego, CA (Wednesdays, Fridays, Saturdays and Mondays, starting May 1, from $99* one way).

“There are so many factors aligned in favor of this route. San Diego and the Norfolk are each home to key U.S. Navy installations plus other nearby military centers, and over the years both regions have developed robust coastal tourism industries. We’ve long observed a high volume of travelers moving between ORF and SAN by way of connecting cities, but Breeze’s nonstop flights bring a new layer of convenience for anyone flying coast to coast,” said Mark Perryman, ORF President and Chief Executive Officer.

“San Diego is one of the U.S.’s most popular summer destinations with great food, beautiful beaches and popular family attractions ,” said Breeze Airways’ President Tom Doxey.

“We’re thrilled to add service from Norfolk to San Diego, our fifth destination in California.”
